

Telemarketing is an invasion of my privacy. I have a right to be undisturbed in the privacy of my home. Telemarketing is not a service; is an intrusive, unsolicited strategy to seek my money. If New Jersey has a higher standard than the federal guidelines, then the FCC should adopt the NJ standard as its own and impose it nationally.